Course Description
This is an introductory course on the Chinese Economy, both historical and current. It covers the imperial dynasties (until 1911), the Republican China (1911-1949), the Maoist China (1949-1978), Deng’s China (1978-1989), and the most recent reform. The post-reform period (1978-present) is the main focus. We are going to discuss the historical development of economic institutions, economic policies and strategies, and in particular how economic reform has affected different sectors in the economy. Comparison will be frequently drawn with related issues in the state of Hawaii as well as the rest of the United States.
